

Strengthening laboratory capacity for diagnosis of neglected tropical diseases

Estimated cost for self-sponsored participants

10–21 June 2019

Public Health Laboratory – Ivo de Carneri

Chake-Chake, Pemba, Zanzibar, United Republic of Tanzania

Travel

- Travel cost from participant's home country to Zanzibar, Tanzania varies according to the airport of departure
- Local travel: flight from Zanzibar to Pemba ranges between 70–115 USD; flights are available early morning, mid-morning and afternoon. (Coastal Aviation, As Salaam Air, ZanAir, Auric Air)

You can also connect from Dar es Salaam to Pemba; estimated cost ranges between 140–150 USD

Tickets can be purchased online, but with prior arrangement PHLIdC can help facilitate local travel.

Visa

Participants will need a visa (US$ 50–250) which can be obtained from Tanzanian Embassy in participant's country or at the airport on arrival. Online visa application is also possible.

For more information, participants are advised to:

- Visit Tanzania Immigration website: <http://www.immigration.go.tz/index.php/en/services/visa-information>
- Contact Tanzanian Embassy in respective country

Invitation or visa support letter can be offered by PHLIdC on request.

Accommodation & meals

In Pemba hotel room ranges between 30–80 USD per night

Meals range between 10–20 USD per day

Package offer for accommodation and meals excluding dinner for 12 nights 9–20 June for 600 USD

Participant interested can indicate this in their application

Tuition fee. The training is supported by WHO and there is no tuition fee involved

Contacts. For more information please contact us at info@phlfdc.org.

